

Godolphin House, Cornwall for The National Trust

After three previous phases, the repair and conversion of the famous north range is being prepared for The National Trust. A new entrance building is presently being made in the old piggery.

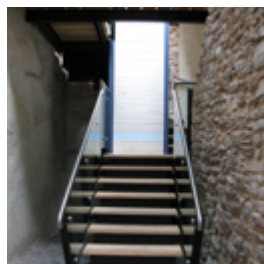

The Hat Shop for Tewkesbury Borough Council

Tewkesbury's new tourist information centre has won an RIBA award..

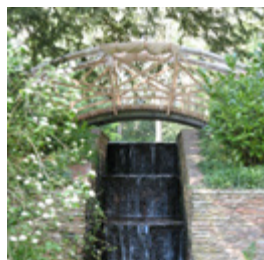

Education Hub, Tyntesfield, Somerset for The National Trust

The sawmill at Tyntesfield has recently been repaired and converted into an education hub for the estate.

Torre Abbey, Torquay, Devon

Torre Abbey recently completed major HLF funded project for a museum was officially opened on 13 September, 2008. The designs for the next phase for a cafe at the east end and to convert the top floor into a gallery are presently in progress.

Hestercombe Gardens Education Centre, Somerset

A low energy conversion of the mill and barn at Hestercombe Gardens, has been completed recently, to provide an education centre and exhibition space. This is heated by a log burning batch boiler that uses Hestercombe's own timber.

In parallel, work has been ongoing to create buildings in the 18th century landscape garden in original positions where they had been lost.

Nothe Fort, Weymouth, Dorset

The repair and conversion of Weymouth's Napoleonic fort at the mouth of the harbour was awarded an RIBA Town & Country award in 2008 for conservation.